SCRIPTURE NOTES from the Stewardship Committee

"Do whatever the (Pharisees) teach you and follow it; but do not do as they do, for they do not practice what they teach." Matthew 23:2-3

As a person who consistently practiced what he preached, even to the very end of his life, Jesus was deeply offended by the hypocrisy he observed. And yet, we all know how hard it is to be constantly faithful to the high calling we have received. As good stewards, we strive to do our best; when we slip, we seek forgiveness and return to the good way as strongly as we can.

Welcome to St. Bartholomew's
All Saints' Sunday
November 5, 2017

Readings for Sunday: Revelation 7:9-17; Psalm 34:1-10, 22
1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12

Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, we welcome you to this place and to this table. Our mission is to be a nurturing inclusive community centered in Jesus Christ, called to grow in our faith through worship, ministry, education, and service.

Today's altar flowers are dedicated to the glory of God and in memory of Phyllis White.

Today's aumbry candle is dedicated to the glory of God.

Instruction for Communion

All are welcome to receive the consecrated bread and wine of the Eucharist. The bread is received in the open palm. The wine may be taken from the common cup by drinking (placing your hand gently on the base of the cup to guide it), or by dipping the bread. If you are not receiving the wine, you may fold your hands across your chest and remain to hear the chalice bearer repeat the words of administration. For those not receiving communion in either kind, you are invited to come forward and receive a blessing. Please place your arms across your chest in reception of the blessing.

Current Sunday Morning Series:

Politics Now and the Ministry of Reconciliation November 5, 12, 9:30 a.m. Parish Hall Meeting Room, Presenters: Dr. John Roberts, Virginia Murray
As Christians we are called to be peacemakers, to help reconcile the world to God through Christ (2 Cor. 5:18), but the challenge is especially hard now. This series, to consider ameliorating strategies, will meet Oct. 15 and 22, and Nov. 5 and 12.

Current Wednesday Evening Series | Discerning Your Spiritual Gifts – A Workshop; Nov 8, 15, 29; 6:30 p.m. – 8 p.m. ; The Parish Hall Meeting Room; Facilitators: Shirley Lee and Bill Sanford

In this workshop based on the book Discerning Your Spiritual Gifts by Episcopal priest, Lloyd Edwards, we will seek to discern our spiritual gifts through various exercises and reflections and shed light on our unique calls. Come find yours.

Stewardship Update | Toward our goal of $760,000 for this pledge season, 74 pledges have been received for a total of $294,826. If you have not yet pledged, return your pledge cards as soon as possible to the box in the narthex or to the church office. You can also pledge online. We will celebrate all of them at an in-gathering service on November 12.

Online Pledging | You can pledge online through St. Bart's Connects. Log in to your account, click on "Available Registrations" in the "I want to view" box, click on "PLEDGE to 2018 Operations Budget" and follow the prompts. If you don't yet have a St. Bart's Connects account, please contact Amanda Vaughn at amanda@stbartsatlanta.org.

It's time for the Treble Choir Christmas Greens sale! Look for our sales table on Sunday mornings and Weds. evenings, now through November 8 and place your order for wreaths, garlands, and centerpieces. You can pick up your order at church in early Dec. or have them shipped anywhere in the U.S. Fill your home with the heavenly smell of fir, spruce, and pine and support our young choir members! Pay with cash or check when you place your order at our table.

NOTABLE

Choral Evensong Nov 5, 5 p.m. | Join us tonight, Sunday, November 5 at 5:00 p.m. for Choral Evensong, sung by the Canterbury Choir. Evensong, which has its roots in the formation of the first Anglican Prayer Books in the 16th century, is one of the crown jewels of our tradition. The service uses candles, incense, and timeless music to give thanks for the day that is past and pray for safety in the night to come. The service will include music of Hogan, Sumsion, and Tavener. End your day surrounded by the beauty of holiness.

Christmas Card for Death Row Inmates Sundays November 5 & 12 | As we have for a number of years, you are invited to come to the Parish Hall after each service to sign Christmas Cards for those on Death Row. Co-ordinated by Neva Corbin.

Dedication of the St. Francis Garden November 12 5:30 p.m. | Thanks to those who persisted and the work of a small committee in formulating a proposal for the vestry to consider, the St. Francis Memorial Garden has indeed been established. On Sunday, November 12, the we will dedicate the new garden. If you have the cremated remains of a beloved pet you'd like to have interred at St. Bartholomew's contact our Administrator & Communicator, Amanda Vaughn, for details. We will schedule a time for a service for your pet at your convenience. We will also walk over to the Memorial Garden which was so lovingly renovated last fall by our own Dave Curl and offer prayers of rededication.

Word in Words Book Group Nov. 13, 7:30 p.m., Library | Our novel for November will be Lovers at the Chameleon Club by Francine Prose. The Word in Words Book Group is a group of enthusiastic readers who meet the 2nd Monday of each month in the library. Selections, primarily fiction, are chosen by the group. No reservations are needed. For more info please contact Molly Mitchell at ggmm1951@gmail.com.

ECW Meeting Nov. 14 10:00 a.m. | Women of St. Bartholomew's are invited to the Episcopal Church Women's (ECW) that meets Tuesday Nov 14th at 10:00 in the Meeting Room. Sharlyn Menard will discuss how human life shows up as story and how stories define us in her presentation: Legacy, What Legacy? Sharlyn is a recent graduate from the progressive seminary at Mercer University (McAfee). She teaches the importance of holding sacred space for the dying and their family members in her work as an end-of-life doula. Meetings are open to all women. ECW meets every 2nd Tuesday of the month (from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.) and starts with delicious refreshments. For more information contact: Margaret Hylton Jones (404-932-8715) or Page Love Smith (912-308-5590).

Garden Lights, Holiday Nights—St. Bart's Field Trip for Adults Thursday, Nov. 16 | Walk with us through the Tunnel of Light and the Walk of Flames at the Atlanta Botanical Garden. We will meet at St. Bartholomew's at 5 p.m. and enjoy a delicious soup and salad, bread for dunking, and sparkling water or tea as we prepare to carpool to the garden. Tickets cost $14.95 for members of the Botanical Garden and $19.95 for non-members. You are urged to order your ticket now by going to the website at atlantabg.org or calling 404-591-1539. IMPORTANT: Please call the church office at 404-634-3336 to indicate your intention to join us. For questions, contact Marsha Bond at 404-290-1987. This event has been planned by the Pastoral Care Committee and the Rev. Bev Elliott.

Thanksgiving Lunch – Time to Sign Up | Following the 10:30 a.m. Thanksgiving service on November 23, there will be a community Thanksgiving lunch. The turkey is supplied. Please sign up in the Parish Hall, including what you might bring and how you might help set up and clean up. See Beverley with your questions.

Feast of Christ the King Nov. 26 | Please note that Sunday, November 26 is the Feast of Christ the King, and the 10:30am service will therefore include the use of incense. For those with allergies, the 8:00 a.m. service and 6:00 p.m. service are incense-free.

Holy Holders Ministry | Our nursery ministry, Holy Holders, is in need of volunteers! If you are open to being present with our smallest community members in the nursery approx. one Sunday per quarter, please consider volunteering in our nursery. Holy Holders Volunteers help on Sundays from 9:00am-11:30am and choose dates that work for their schedules. If you have questions or are interested, please contact Becky Anne at rebecca.anne@me.com or 678-488-6586.

Refugee Family Co-Sponsorship | Many, many thanks to everyone who signed up to help furnish and set up the apartment of our soon to arrive Sudanese family! So grateful to everyone for the outpouring of support. Please leave all household items in the Taylor Room as soon as possible. And we will arrange to pick up furniture and large items on the day we move into the apartment. Questions? Please contact Karen Werner, wernerksw@comcast.net or cell, 404-906-3992.

Refugee Kids Closet | We have an easy way to help our refugee families! The Refugee Kids Closet will collect donations again for fall/ winter to match the sizes of the kids in families St. Bart's
